"T'WILL COST US OHIO."

President D. M. Yeomans' Opinion of Brice's Election.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE WORLD.)

BALTIMORE, Jan. 24.—Mr. D. M. Yeomans, a member of the Manhattan Club, of New York, in conversation with THE WORLD correspondent to-day he expressed his approval of THE WORLD's action in opposing the election of Calvin S. Brice to the Senate from Ohio. Mr. Yeomans is an Ohio man, President of the New York and Ohio Railway. He said:

"I was opposed to Mr. Brice for two reasons—first, because of his peculiar characteristics, and, second, on account of his utter lack of business ability. He is directly responsible for the defeat of the Democratic party in the last National campaign. I have known him for years, have had constant dealings with him, and know whereof I speak. If he is elected to the Senate it will cost us Ohio in the next Presidential election. He would not attend to any business in the Senate unless there was 'bustle' in it. That is his line. I am Vice-President of a large financial corporation in New York, and in the sale of the Nickel Plate to Vanderbilt. Brice came into my office in high glee.

"We have socked it to the old cuss," he exclaimed. "We got eight millions, and you bet I get a d— big share of the bustle. If that had held out three days longer the road would have been busted."

"The bustle he then secured is the only claim Brice has to be elected Senator. Even in that deal the road work was largely done by Columbus A. Cummings, of Chicago, and others, but they had the decency not to boast of their ill-gotten gains. So Brice got the credit of it all, if any credit is attached to the engineering of such a job.

"In the last campaign he allowed the Republicans to fool him in every way. They engaged his attention in States like Illinois and Iowa, making him believe that they could be carried by the Democrats. He thus neglected Indiana and Ohio and allowed them to do their share of the work unchallenged. Calvin S. Brice is a much over-rated man. I have met many Ohio men since I've been here. The Republicans among them are rejoiced at the prospect of his election. They feel it will give them the State. The Democrats still think that Brice in the Senate will be a national disgrace.

Mr. Yeomans has large business interests in Ohio. He said that no worse blow could befall them than the election of such a man.

Mr. D. M. Yeomans has an office at No. 35 Wall street. He is a member of the New York and Manhattan Clubs. He is President of the New York and Ohio Railway Company, which is in the course of construction from Hudson, O., to Greenville, Pa. He is also President of the Westinghouse, of Pittsburgh, and secured the election of the Westinghouse house in England. He is a Democrat, and something of a politician. He left for Europe six weeks ago for the benefit of his health.

Non-Partisan Temperance Women

Form a New League.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 23.—The women who are meeting in Cleveland for the purpose of organizing a Non-Partisan National Women's Christian Temperance Union are doing their work with great deliberation. The following letter was received by one of the members of the Provisional Committee:

AMHERST, Mass., Jan. 18, 1890.

DEAR FRIENDS:—I have just received from you a copy of the letter, and I am glad to hear that you are all so active in the cause. I am sure that your efforts will be successful. I am sure that your efforts will be successful. I am sure that your efforts will be successful.

An Electric Wire's Franks.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 23.—By the crossing of a telegraph wire with the electric wire of the Pleasant Valley Street Railroad on Southside street to-day several patrol boxes, including those at City Hall and the Market House, were burned out. For nearly twenty minutes pedestrians and business men in the vicinity were treated to a rare display of confusion. Sparks were flying in all directions, melting snow and burning all wood with which they came in contact. A woman, who was walking, and before the burning out of the patrol boxes and telegraph boxes there was no damage.

ICE-BOUND AT NEWFOUNDLAND.

The Caspian Unable to Land and the Circassian Held in Port.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Jan. 23.—The Allan steamer Caspian, after a fourteen-day's passage from Liverpool, arrived here on Tuesday morning. After the usual detention she attempted to proceed to Halifax, but, owing to the ice, was unable to get out of the harbor. She now lies in the harbor awaiting a change of wind to drive the ice off the coast.

The Snow Blockade Raised.

DENVER, Jan. 23.—The entire Rio Grande system is now open, the snow blockade having been raised last yesterday afternoon. The Union Pacific, Portland branch, opened yesterday, and the first train in from that city for several days arrived at Denver this afternoon at 6 o'clock. The San Francisco route was greatly improved, and the first train through for the coast left Denver this morning.
